

THE LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XXII.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4, 1865.

NUMBER 79.

MILLINERY GOODS.

1865. FALL. 1865.

MRS. A. E. PORTER

IS NOW OPENING THE LARGEST STOCK

OF FALL.

MILLINERY GOODS

Ever brought to this market, consisting of Bonnets, Ribbons, Feathers, Flowers, Hats and Ornaments.

Also, a large stock of LADIES' CAPS, NETS, HATS, DRESSSES and VALES; a large assortment of MUSLIN, COTTON and SATIN, which we invite our customers and the public to call and inspect. Prices paid to all orders.

No. 103, Main St., Louisville, between Fourth and South, south side, Louisville, Ky.

See us at the following address:

Fall Millinery.

MADAME F. CERF,

No. 136, Old No. 439 MARKET STREET.

Bet. Fourth and Fifth, south side,

HAS JUST RETURNED FROM NEW YORK, and has received and will continue to receive a large stock of

Bonnets, Hats, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers and Fancy Goods;

Alexander's and Juvon's Kid Gloves Head-Dresses, Dress Caps, Corslets,

And a general variety of OPTIONS, for ladies' wear. Call and see for yourselves.

See us at the following address:

EDUCATIONAL

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

The next session of this institution which was never discontinued during the war, will begin on October 1st, 1865.

The University is organized into three distinct schools, with many professors. Six of the schools are Academic, besides that of Chemistry and Physics, and one of Medicine, and one of Law and the Department.

With the exception of a few sets of text books, will be about $100, for the session of nine months, with the usual discounts. The session begins on the 1st of October, and the remainder between that time and the 1st of January. For further particulars, apply at University of Virginia, or at MARTIN, Chairman of Faculty.

Boarding and Day School

WILL BE OPENED BY MRS. ANNIE H. HUTCHINS, at No. 103, Main Street, at the corner of Fourth and Madison Streets. A class of young ladies fitting for teachers, will be received at the school from 2 to 6 o'clock every afternoon.

Kentucky School of Medicine

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Fourteenth Annual Session 1865.

FACULTY.

BENJ. W. DUDLEY, M.D., Emeritus Professor of Medicine.

J. W. BULLITT, M.D., Professor of Theory and Practice of Medicine.

W. W. BRIGHT, M.D., Professor of Chemistry and Physics.

J. T. BREWER, M.D., Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children.

A. B. COOK, M.D., Professor of Surgery.

J. A. FRAZIER, M.D., Professor of Surgery.

J. D. BUCHANAN, M.D., Demonstrator of Anatomy.

Dr. J. D. BUCHANAN, M.D., Demonstrator of Anatomy.

Monday in October next, and continue our monthly Course, including, comparative Anatomy, and Green streets.

FEES.

Tickets for the full Course... $90.00

Matriculation Tickets... 5.00

Interest on Unpaid Balance... 25.00

Graduation... 25.00

For further information, address

Mr. J. D. BUCHANAN, M.D., Dean.

NEW CARPET STORE.

Carpets,

OIL CLOTH, &c.

I BEG TO INFORM MY FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL, that I have established in this city a wholesale and retail

CARPET STORE

In all its branches, comprising

ENGLISH VELVET, BRUSSELS AND DOMESTIC CARPETS,

Oil Cloths, Curtains, Shades, &c.

My entire stock has been bought and manufactured to meet all your individual wants, and to give you the best prices to those wanting to purchase. Give me a call. 200 Main street, now open.

G. FRANCIS,

No. 117 Market street, north side, between Fourth and Fifth.

WM. H. DUNCAN, & CO. SMITH,

Lace, Linen, Cloth, &c. 200 Main street, Ky. Int.

DUNCAN & SMITH,

T. C. COLEMAN, Pres.

Warehouse, Main st., bet. Bullitt & Fifth.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Bar, Boiler, Sheet & Hoop Iron.

Importers and dealers in all kinds of English, German, Swiss and American Steel.

WE WANTED the very best quality

IRON PLATES FOR THE WHOLESALE TRADE.

WE HAVE RECENTLY RECEIVED AND

ARE NOW ASSUMING THE POSITION OF THE

HON. R. H. BROWNELL,

WHITE LEAD

AND LINSEED OIL WORKS.

We manufacture pure white lead,

and linseed oil, and other brands, in 2-,

4-, 6-, 8-, 10-, 12-, buckets, and in assortments up to 12-pounds.

Pure, in bladders, Both Lead Oil, and Linseed Oil, and Linseed Oil.

We also keep a general assortment of Colors, dry and in oil, and all sorts of Materials for all kinds; Admirable prices.

Diamonds, Glassware, Pictures, Blistered Colors; Glass;

Window Glass, Varnishes,

Pure Saponin Oil, Winter Bleached,

Pure Tanners' Oil,

Pure Linseed Oil.

All of which we offer at wholesale at the lowest prices.

D. C. HEISKELL

WOULD RESPECTFULLY INFORM HIS

customers that he has received his Fall Stock of Cloth, Cassimeres & Vestings, and will be pleased to see all of his old customers and as many new ones as will favor him with a call at the old stand,

No. 10 Main st., above Second.

C. LATIMER, JACKSON, Tenn.

HALLIDAY, LATIMER & CO.,

Transit Agents, Mobile & Ohio Railroad,

Forwarding & Commission Merchants

AND

Wharfboat Proprietors,

CORBIN, KY.

WE WILL MAKE LIBERAL CASH ADVANCES

ON our consignments to our correspondents, and give prompt attention to goods consigned to care for the South.

E BEN. FROTHINGHAM,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Gents' Furnishing Goods.

No. 40 West Main st., bet. First and Second,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Louisville Hydraulic Cement.

HAVING SOLD TO MISSISS. SCOWDEN,

Manufacturers of Hydraulic Cement, we recommend them to our customers and the public generally, as the best hydraulic cement in the market.

Very prompt and reliable.

FELIX McHARRY, Adm'r.

No. 103, Aug. 1st, 1865.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE PURCHASED

THE WHOLESALE COTTON for the sum of $100,000.00 and have agreed to sell all orders for Hydraulic Cement.

W. S. MITCHELL, VEN. P. ARMSTRONG,

MITCHELL & ARMSTRONG,

220 Main st., bet. Second and Third,

and 8th f.

A. W. RANDOLPH,

SURVEYOR AND CIVIL ENGINEER,

Office at J. W. GIBSON'S, 105 West Jefferson street, between Fourth and Fifth,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

FALL RACES.

WOODLAWN ASSOCIATION COURSE,

Louisville, Ky.

R EGULAR RUNNING MEETING FOR THE

ASSOCIATION STAKE,

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, RUGGLES & CO.
OFFICE—
South side of Green street, two doors below the Customhouse.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1, 1865.

Arrival and Departure of Trains.

LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY & CHICAGO R.R.	DEPART.	ARRIVED.
Morning Express.....	7 A.M.	8:20 P.M.
Night Express.....	8:20 P.M.	8:20 P.M.
MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY RAILROAD.
Morning Express.....	7:20 A.M.	8:20 A.M.
Evening Express.....	2:20 P.M.	4:20 P.M.
LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE R.R.
Morning Express.....	7:20 A.M.	8:20 P.M.
Evening Express.....	2:20 P.M.	4:20 P.M.
LOUISVILLE AND FEDERAL RAILROAD.
Morning Express.....	8:20 A.M.	10:20 A.M.
Accommodation.....	9:20 P.M.	8:00 A.M.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Oct. 3d. The following persons were fined for drunkenness and disorderly conduct: Goldie Baden, $15; W. Jessell, $10; Geo. Hardy, $10.

Wm. Goper, druggist, &c.; discharged.

Geo. Koper, carrying concealed and deadly weapons; $100 to answer.

Michael Ford, stealing $3 from A. Wellish & Co.; continued until to-morrow.

The following persons were fined or ordinanced warrants: Jas. Basner, $5; Chas. Obst, $5; Joseph McMullan, $5; Morris Nagle, $10; Herbert, $5; Henry Knapp, $5.

Charles Liebert, passing a counterfeit United States Treasury note; discharged.

We are informed by our friends, Messrs. F. H. Taylor & Co., that they intend taking one of their family hand loans to New Liberty for exhibition at the Owen county Agricultural Fair. We congratulate the citizens of Owen county and of other counties visiting the fair that they will now have an opportunity seeing and examining a labor saving machine that is fast becoming an "indispensable institution" in every farm house in the State. We have often mentioned our opinion of the importance of this useful invention, and we have been confirmed in that opinion by the judgement of the committee at our State fair, and by the continual crowd of admiring and deeply interested spectators that surrounded the room during the whole exhibition.

We hope no either of "Sweet Owl" will fall to see that it has only to be sent in operation to be appreciated. It is neatly gotten up and would ornament any room in a gentleman's house. Any person who has his own interests at heart and the comfort and convenience of his wife and family (for boys can use it as well as girls), will obtain one of these improvements. We presume that Messrs. F. H. Taylor & Co. will be pleased to receive orders for their loans, and buyers may look confidently to have their orders filled according to contract.

Report of the Superintendent of the Work, Pest and Poorhouses for the month ending September 30, 1865:

WORKHOUSES.

Prisoners remaining.....

20

Total, and discharged.....

20

Remaining Oct. 1st.....

20

Patients remaining Sept. 30th.....

20

Total, discharged.....

20

Remaining Oct. 1st.....

20

Total, discharged.....

20

Remaining Oct. 1st.....

20

Total number of days' labor performed by the prisoners during the month, 1,600. Average daily amount of food, clothing, bedding, &c., per prisoner, wages of quarry hands and family expenses, &c., per day, $1.00. Total amount of money paid with the institution, including each and every expense, $1,600.

JAMES KIRKPATRICK, Superintendent.

Visit the Cosmopolitan Gift Book Store, 210 Fourth street, opposite the National Hotel, and examine the following publications: "Harpers," Lippincott's, Ticknor & Fields', Loring & Co.'s, John Bradburn's, Titton & Co.'s, Peterson's and a host of others too numerous to mention.

A gift worth every book sold, varying in value from fifty cents to one hundred dollars. Every book sold at the publishers' price.

ACCIDENT.—As the steam fire engine, Sam Watkins was going to the fire, the firemen, George Watkins, got his foot terribly mangled by getting it caught under the fire-door in snow a position that the entire weight of the rear part of the engine was thrown upon it. It is said that his foot will have to be amputated. Mr. Watkins was a faithful and industrious fireman, and he will be greatly missed by the department.

MAMMOTH CAVE PROPERTY FOR RENT. It will be seen by reference to appropriate heading that the Mammoth Cave property is offered for lease for a term of years. As a place of resort it is very likely to be one of deep interest to the student of nature and to the curious, as well as to mere pleasure-seekers. The terms and conditions on which it can be rented are set forth in the advertisement. Read it for particulars.

Crocus Creek Oil.

The following dispatch reached us yesterday, and we take pleasure in furnishing it for the benefit of our readers:

BURKESVILLE, KY., Oct. 3, 1865.

To the Editors of the Louisville Democrat:

Crocus well set to work at 1 o'clock p.m. yesterday. Up to 6 o'clock this morning had flowed 600 barrels of pure oil.

S. H. BOLES.

KENTUCKY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE.—The public introductory lecture to the regular course in this institution will be delivered this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the college building, corner of Fifth and Green streets, by Professor Bullitt. The public are respectfully invited.

Yesterday morning Coronel Gill was called upon to hold an inquest upon the body of a man found floating in the river some twelve miles below the city. He was so much decomposed that it was impossible to tell how he came to his death, unless by accidental drowning.

We announce, under the obituary head, the death of the Rev. Richard Tydings, at the advanced age of eighty-three years. He was well known and respected by many of the old residents of Louisville.

A negro soldier was knocked down in Jeffersonville yesterday and severely injured. The darkies have been intrepid and overbearing, and the community is exasperated. A bad state of feeling exists among them.

Quick sales with small profits, in the motto at McCormell & Meiningers', 91 West Jefferson street, where they are selling pianos and musical instruments of all kinds at wonderfully low prices. Go and see.

The only arrest recorded on the slate at the jail up to 10 o'clock last night was that of Marie Turner, stealing fifty dollars from D. Launham, which was made by officer J. G. Enlow.

A new house is to be opened at the corner of Jefferson and Jackson streets, under the name of Fenian Saloon, this evening at 6 o'clock—James W. Sweeney, proprietor.

WOODLAWN RACES.

Second Day.

SAD AFFAIR.

Love, Desotion and Suicide.

INQUIRY NO. 420.—Hold October 2d, 1865, at the residence of Mrs. Carrick, on Eleventh, between Walnut and Madison streets, on the body of Mrs. Martha Lush, aged 20 years, a native of Georgia. Verdict.—Cause of her death, suicide, place, at or about 11 o'clock A.M., October 2d, 1865, from an over-dose of laudanum, administered by herself.

J. C. GILL, Coroner.

Few persons who read the above inquest, as published in the Democrat of yesterday morning, were aware of the misery that had been brought upon a respectable family, or how an innocent, confiding young girl was brought to an untimely grave through the means of the vile seducer. The name of the young girl was Rowland. Her family, previous to the terrible war which has just been closed, lived in affluent circumstances in the city of Atlanta, Ga. After the occupation of that place by the Federal troops, she became enamored of a young man belonging to the 21 Pennsylvania cavalry, who with the slippery tongue of the seducer, wrought her ruin. He promised to marry her, when they reached this city, and she assumed his name (Lush). Instead of this (or if he did marry her), he deserted her, and left her an orphan upon the cold charities of the world. After they arrived in this city he and deserted her, she applied for a situation in some respectable family, but instead of being shown to one she was taken to a house of ill-fame, where she ended her unhappy career. She had been there for some six or seven weeks, during which time she was over-worked, and often asked after him who had promised to marry her.

[October 3, 1865.]

Few persons who read the above inquest, as published in the Democrat of yesterday morning, were aware of the misery that had been brought upon a respectable family, or how an innocent, confiding young girl was brought to an untimely grave through the means of the vile seducer. The name of the young girl was Rowland. Her family, previous to the terrible war which has just been closed, lived in affluent circumstances in the city of Atlanta, Ga. After the occupation of that place by the Federal troops, she became enamored of a young man belonging to the 21 Pennsylvania cavalry, who with the slippery tongue of the seducer, wrought her ruin. He promised to marry her, when they reached this city, and she assumed his name (Lush). Instead of this (or if he did marry her), he deserted her, and left her an orphan upon the cold charities of the world. After they arrived in this city he and deserted her, she applied for a situation in some respectable family, but instead of being shown to one she was taken to a house of ill-fame, where she ended her unhappy career. She had been there for some six or seven weeks, during which time she was over-worked, and often asked after him who had promised to marry her.

[October 3, 1865.]

We ask the attention of our readers in view of a fine, large building well located, to Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale that afternoon, at 4 o'clock, on the west side of Second street, south of Washington.

[October 3, 1865.]

WE are informed by our friends, Messrs. F. H. Taylor & Co., that they intend taking one of their family hand loans to New Liberty for exhibition at the Owen county Agricultural Fair. We congratulate the citizens of Owen county and of other counties visiting the fair that they will now have an opportunity seeing and examining a labor saving machine that is fast becoming an "indispensable institution" in every farm house in the State. We have often mentioned our opinion of the importance of this useful invention, and we have been confirmed in that opinion by the judgement of the committee at our State fair, and by the continual crowd of admiring and deeply interested spectators that surrounded the room during the whole exhibition.

We hope no either of "Sweet Owl" will fall to see that it has only to be sent in operation to be appreciated. It is neatly gotten up and would ornament any room in a gentleman's house. Any person who has his own interests at heart and the comfort and convenience of his wife and family (for boys can use it as well as girls), will obtain one of these improvements. We presume that Messrs. F. H. Taylor & Co. will be pleased to receive orders for their loans, and buyers may look confidently to have their orders filled according to contract.

SECOND HEAT.

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very exciting, first one and then the other being the favorite between Brown and Cassady. Johnson selling third in all the pools which we noticed, with the exception of one or two, when Johnson sold second and Cassidy third. The horses were all brought on the track in excellent condition, and each team had its friends, who were willing to invest the greenbacks on their respective favorites.

[October 3, 1865.]

At the tap of the drum for the first heat the horses got a good start, Brown having rather the advantage, Cassady second, and the people are taking an interest in the exciting contests over the course, and that they are determined to place our course as one of the first, if not THE first, in the country. We are glad, also, to see so large an attendance daily of the fair daughters of Kentucky, who by their presence lend an encouragement to those interested in pushing forward the noble work. As the teams in the first race were equally matched, those who were present looked for a good race, an exciting contest and fast time. In this the large crowd present were not in the least disappointed. In the pool selling, before going to the course, Cassidy was the favorite, but after reaching the track, and the betters had a chance of examining the different teams, the betting became very

Daily Democrat.

TELEGRAPHIC.

YESTERDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

Latest Intelligence from Mexico.

Successes gained by Imperialists.

Reception of Maximilian in the Interior Towns.

Palmer not to be Removed from his Command.

The Election in North Carolina.

Number of Government Hospitals in the Country.

General Sherman on a Tour of Inspection.

Louisiana Delegation and the President.

Advice from Western Virginia.

Landing of a Fillibuster Party at Tuxpan, Mexico.

New York, Oct. 3.

Arrived—United States, from New York. General Canby has seized the steamers Cherokee and Magnolia. Mobile packets, they having failed to comply with the order to stop. The rebels have requested the removal of troops from the State. The Constitution, as amended, was adopted as a whole. The resolution to amend it will be voted upon or before the first of September, 1866.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.

Arrived—United States, from New York. General Canby has seized the steamers Cherokee and Magnolia. Mobile packets, they having failed to comply with the order to stop. The rebels have requested the removal of troops from the State.

It is reported that Mr. W. Conway, Superintendent of freedmen, has been superseded.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.

The St. Louis Common Council have returned from a visit to Boston, and will leave to-night for home via Chicago.

The publishers of the Richmond Commercial Bulletin, have again indulged in the purchase of reasonable language. Gen. Terry has again suppressed the issue of the sheet.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 3.

Cotton dull; 1,250 bales sold for $445. Cotton at 15½ cents per lb. for freight to New York 14½.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.

The river has fallen five inches. The weather clear. The 58.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 3.

The river is unchanged. Weather cool.

DENTAL CARDS.

DENTISTRY.

Teeth Within the Reach of All!

Fall Upper Sets, best quality, from Veneer Rubber, $10 to $15.

Tooth inserted on Gold and Silver, $15 to $20.

Tooth Extracted with S. Liver, $10.

Tooth Extracted with S. Liver, $10.

Chisel Extracted with S. Liver, $10.

Ch